Summer Ends

Summer is coming to a close I am sad to report. Hasn't the weather been wonderful? I hope you all enjoyed your summer vacations. As promised this is the second newsletter of the year. With the fall and winter months on the horizon, I decided to focus on some great activities available during the remainder of 2006 and beginning of 2007.

Thank you again to all our guests, especially the family from Henniker NH for being so patient with us as we replaced the refrigerator. As a reminder, if there are newsletter topics you would like to see in the March 2007 issue, just let me know. -Robin

Vacation Ideas for this coming Fall and Winter Seasons The Polar Express

Do you remember the cherished children's story The Polar Express by Chris Van Allsburg? It is a story of a little boy who rides a train to the North Pole to meet Santa and all his elves.

The Polar Express A magical Journey to the North Pole has been made realistic by the Believe in Books Literacy Foundation. Train rides lasting two hours round trip leave both the North Conway and Lincoln NH stations throughout the month of December. Come dressed in pajamas and share this experience with your little ones.

Tickets are available through a Mail-In Lottery system. For more information visit:

The Polar Express Train Ride. Lottery drawings for North Conway will be held on October 24, 2006 between 7:30-10:00 PM; October 26th for Lincoln, NH. Our NH vacation rental is located approximately one hour from the North Conway station.

Wolfeboro s Scarecrow Festival

This has to be the most interesting event all year. The main streets of Wolfeboro are lined with scarecrow creations limited only by imagination. Each business and organization competes for the best scarecrow.

The event takes place September 30 - October 7, 2006. I recommend Wolfeboro for those who enjoy a great downtown walking experience. I can't think of a better time to stroll around Wolfeboro than during their annual Scarecrow festival. It is completely free. Visit Wolfeboro Chamber of Commerce website for more information.

The Village Players

The village players, located on Glendon Street in Wolfeboro, is a non-profit amateur community theater that seats 200. They will be performing A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum November 10-19, 2006. Tickets can be purchased online at:
Village Players of Wolfeboro.

Christmas Parade

The Annual Christmas in Wolfeboro Parade will be held on November 25th. Other holiday events are held throughout the month of December. For more information on these events please visit:
Wolfeboro Chamber of Commerce website.

First Night Wolfeboro

First Night in Wolfeboro is a community-wide, alcohol-free event held on Main Street. First Night buttons provide admission to all events and happenings. Events begin at 2PM and last until midnight. Last year the event held two sets of fireworks, face painting, ice sculptures, music, dancing, and theatre. First Night 2007 is still in the making. See the Wolfeboro Chamber of Commerce website to find out the latest developments.

Hay and Sleigh Rides

I've been asked many times for recommendations for a place to enjoy a hay ride or a sleigh ride. After doing some research, I have found Charmingfare Farm in Candia, NH. They are 50 miles from our NH vacation rental but definitely worth the trip.

Charmingfare is not only a farm, it is also a zoo. They have 200 animals of 40 different species. They host events throughout the year including Halloween parties, lighted winter wonderland, Santa s big party, and much more. For more information visit Charmingfare Farm website or call (603)483-5623.

Gunstock Mountain

Is it really time to start thinking about your next ski trip? We would love to offer you the best vacation rental experience, only a 45 minute drive from Gunstock Mountain in Gilford, NH.

Gunstock has 50 trails, 17 open for night skiing. They also have tubing, cross country skiing, snowshoeing, ski lessons, and a children s center. Visit

Gunstock Mountain website or call 1-800-Gunstock for more information.

Vacation Specials

Would you like a great rate to experience some of the events listed above? How about a tax-free shopping trip? Are you overdue for a girl s weekend away? There are never enough romantic getaway weekends.

For the months of November, December, and April we are offering a special weekend rate of $400 and a special weekly rate of $800 on all non-holiday dates.

Summertime is just finishing. If you want to make a reservation for next season; do so before October 1st to receive 2006 rates.

Internet Access Connection Survey

I mentioned in the March 2006 Newsletter that I had just begun to offer a high speed internet access connection to our vacation rental. It has been available for six months now.
